De Berry Special Needs Facility Dress Requirements:

a. Clothing should fit in an appropriate manner, i.e., (pants shall be worn at the waist). Clothing appearing to be too large or too small for the wearer, creating obvious gaps or exposure, is prohibited. Too tight clothing is never allowed.

b. Visitors are not allowed to wear cut, frayed, or patched jeans, or jeans that even look like they may have been torn. This includes new jeans with tears or holes or stitching made to look torn.

c. Visitors must wear undergarments. (Examples of undergarments deemed inappropriate are thongs and water bras). Cleavage is never allowed, nor are the shoulders to be bare.

d. The following types of clothing are specifically prohibited: Garments manufactured from spandex or spandex-type fabrics; any clothing that is transparent or translucent in nature; sleeveless shirts and blouses; dresses or clothing exposing a bare chest, midriff or back; tank tops alone, camouflage attire; bandannas, worn or tattered clothing; clothing with logos that contain pictures, slogans, or vulgarity, or contain signs or symbols of security threat groups. All sleeves must cover the upper part of the arms. Sleeveless tops are never allowed, even under jackets.

e. Due to the high volume of nursing staff at this facility, no nursing uniforms or scrub tops/bottoms of any color are allowed.

f. Shoes are mandatory for everyone, however, steel-toed shoes, flip-flops or shower shoes, thong (between the toe) sandals, or soft-soled house shoes are not permitted. Open toed sandals are permitted, but they must have a strap on the back. Since you will have to remove your shoes to be searched, please wear easy on/off styles.

g. Visitors may not wear excessive clothing such as two pairs of pants. Warmer clothing (i.e., sweaters, scarves, and sweatshirts), are acceptable in winter months.

h. Full body jumpsuits and overalls are not allowed. Visitors are not permitted to wear TDOC clothing. The wearing of sunglasses is not permitted (unless medically ordered).

i. Visitor’s jewelry is limited to one ring, one pair of earrings, and a watch. No bracelets, multiple rings, or necklaces will be allowed inside.

j. No hats.
