DISCLOSURE OF RELEVANT FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Activity Title: Journal of Correctional Health Care

Manuscript No.: __________________________

Name:

(Please print or type complete name and credentials.)

1. List the names of commercial interests (defined in the Glossary of Terms below) with which you or your spouse/partner have, or had, a relevant financial relationship within the past 12 months. For this purpose, we consider the relevant financial relationships of your spouse or partner that you are aware of to be yours.

2. Describe what you or your spouse/partner received (ex: salary, fee, research grant, etc.). NCCHC does NOT want to know how much you received.

3. Describe your role.

4. If you have no disclosure to make, indicate so by checking the box above the signature line.

Example Terminology

What was received?

- Salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, research grant, consulting fee, speaker fee, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit.

For what role?

- Employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected. NCCHC considers financial relationships of the person involved in the education program and/or activity to include financial relationships of a spouse or partner.

Glossary of Terms

Commercial interest

A commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing health care goods or services, used on, or consumed by, patients. Providers of clinical service directly to patients are not considered to be commercial interests.

Financial relationships

Financial relationships are those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected. NCCHC considers financial relationships of the person involved in the education program and/or activity to include financial relationships of a spouse or partner.

Relevant financial relationships

NCCHC focuses on financial relationships with commercial interests in the 12-month period preceding the time that the individual is being asked to assume a role controlling content of the education program and/or activity. A minimal dollar amount for relationships to be significant has not been set. Inherent in any amount is the incentive to maintain or increase the value of the relationship. “Relevant financial relationships” are defined as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

Conflict of interest

Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to affect educational content about products or services of a commercial interest with which he/she has a financial relationship.
